

We are more than a food pantry

We are part of an overflow of the heart of our community

Mission

The mission of the Hilliard Food Pantry Plus is simple - improve the well-being of our community by providing food and support. For 60 years, we've been helping Hilliard families access food in an atmosphere of dignity and respect.

We added "Plus" to our name to represent that we are more than a food pantry. By crafting a series of supportive services, we're able to better support families by removing barriers and promoting increased accessibility to resources. We also provide assistance with problem solving to help families achieve their goals for a healthier and more stable life, provide utility assistance, and much more.

Meeting people where they are

We connect families in need to resources that help them thrive

We're here to offer food and support in an atmosphere of dignity and respect. Families can work on goals and remove barriers that are making it hard for them to thrive. Here are some ways we can help:

Resources & Assistance

Serving families with food assistance, basic health resources, car seats and a free store

Education & Empowerment

Financial education, food growing and preparation, and workforce readiness training

Partnership & Community

Opportunities to collaborate through monetary donations and volunteer service

How you can help

Volunteer in the pantry

In-pantry volunteers make it possible for us to serve more than 400 families each week. We have a wide range of in-pantry volunteer opportunities to suit every interest, skill level or time commitment. Visit hilliardfoodpantry.org/want-to-help to get started.

Volunteer from home

At-home volunteers have the flexibility to support the Hilliard Food Pantry Plus on their own time. We have a broad variety of opportunities for all ages, ranging from organizing mini food drives to donating extra produce from neighborhood gardens.

Volunteer in the Share Closet

The Share Closet provides gently used clothing for men, women, teens and children. We also offer small kitchen appliances, dishes and bedding. Volunteer opportunities include sorting and hanging clothes, assisting families as they shop, and more.

Give a monetary gift

Did you know that every $1 donation provides $4.56 of groceries? A tax deductible monetary gift will help purchase canned goods, meat and dairy, as well as provide utility assistance to families in the Hilliard area. Visit hilliardfoodpantry.org/donate to make a donation today!
